RACES: Steve WB2VMR reports participation in Monroe County SET, EOC activated, contacted Monroe repeaters, etc. Ontario County SET will be November 4, more detail to follow. Need 20-25 people if possible. Four RACES people are going to 3 day state training in Oriskany. SIARC and Geneva Repeaters are ready to go, need work parties..Signalink sound cards ordered for all equipment to improve all rigs, etc. Also new antenna tripods and coax for go kits ordered.

MONROE COUNTY SET: Paul KD2DO reported on successful event, few bugs, learned a lot. Used FRS at Fairport Regatta and it worked out well. Short discussion of use of FRS with untrained operators.

PUBLIC SERVICE EVENTS:

- Wineglass Marathon in Bath and Corning was 10/1. Todd W2ODD reported that it went well.
- Pumpkin Patrol, 10/30, 31. See Tom or Dave KB2KBY to sign up. Still need a couple more operators. Note: no bridge incidents since patrol began.
- Doug KD2LGE reported on Wilmot Cancer Center marathon, couple lost folks, little searching, no casualties. "Wilmot Breakaway Ride" was formal name.
- AWA Opening: Pat KD2PER reported on new boot camp class for radio operators. Ham shack set up, with receiver wall, and other exhibits.

SKYWARN TRAINING: General discussion of availability of in person trainers and nature of online course. Todd W2ODD reports training information can be had at <https://www.weather.gov/buf/Skywarn>.
